

Two September programs:

1. Teaching

Compassion Meets Emptiness

Three days of teachings on
Chenrezig and Mahamudra
With Karma Kagyu lineage holder
Shamar Rinpoche
September 13, 14, 15, 2013
Bodhi Path Natural Bridge

Program description:

Empty of essence, luminous, creative... the nature of mind is impossible to describe with precision and yet the mind is the basis of every experience. Mahamudra guides the practitioner to realize the fundamental nature of mind and uses this recognition as the basis for benefiting others. The natural result is the blossoming of loving-kindness and compassion, which finds its expression in the profound yet accessible practice of Chenrezig. Join Shamar Rinpoche as he illuminates the realization of Mahamudra.

Shamar Rinpoche: The 14th Shamarpa, or Red Hat Lama, is the second-oldest reincarnate lineage of Tibet. Rinpoche was born in 1952. He received the full teachings and transmissions from H.H. the 16th Karmapa as well as many important lamas of other lineages. In 1980, his activity began to spread with frequent teachings in Asia and the West, where he became well known for his ability to make even the most profound teachings easily accessible. In 1996, he organized the Bodhi Path Buddhist Centers, a worldwide network of centers based on a non-sectarian approach to Buddhism.
